Ready to Work Academy

What you need to know:

- ◆ There is no charge for individuals who are eligible for services from Lucas County Board of DD.
- ◆ Participants must bring their own lunches.
- ◆ Participants are responsible for arranging transportation to and from the program.

Ready to Work Academy provides young adults and graduating seniors (ages 17-25) with information and tools about what they need to get a job, interview skills, and how to be a good employee, via class-room work, role-play experiences, and one-on-one mentoring.

A parent workshop is offered to help parents understand and reinforce what their sons/daughters are learning.

Program Objectives

- ◆ Participants will gain understanding about basic job seeking skills (communication skills, interview skills, appropriate attire, etc.).
- ◆ Participants will complete individualized job application fact sheet to use when seeking employment.
- ◆ Participants will gain understanding about what makes a good employee.
